Players Guidelines during Covid 19

All players Must adhere to the “Guidelines for Tennis Community Clubs during Covid-19 ” that was provided by Toronto City. You can find it on our website - <https://www.pleasantviewtennis.com/en/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/PVTC-COV-D-19-GUIDELINES.pdf>.

Here are the highlights:

- Courts should be booked with our online booking in advance for all members.
- Arrive as close as possible to the game start time.
- Give other players space while waiting for your turn.
- Bring your tennis balls with distinct numbers.
- Only handle balls that belong to you.
- Play single or double tennis.
- Keep a 2 meter distance with other players.
- Avoid all physical contact, for example shaking hands with other players.
- Avoid touching your face as much as possible.
- Do not meet other players at the net.
- Stay on your side of the court.
- Cross at opposite sides of the net when changing sides.
- Keep your distance from other players when retrieving tennis balls.
- Avoid touching common areas (the net, fences, poles, gates, etc ).
- Regularly clean or sanitize your hands.
- The clubhouse may be closed if executive members are not present or when the Public Health department regulates closure of public indoor facilities due to Covid or any other reasons.
